1. The Octombrie Rosu (formerly Cehoslovaca) Clothing Factory in Bucharest produces women's and children's ready made clothing for sale in the state shops. The factory is located at 100 Strada Berzei, and the warehouse for materials and finished clothing is at 19 Strada Berzei.
2. The factory has 1,500 workers, 900 of whom are women, working in two shifts. Equipment consists of a large number of electric sewing machines and six electric buttonhole machines. Six thousand meters of material are used per day, from which about 2,000 dresses are made.
3. The 1950 balance sheet showed a loss of 8 million lei, and a state inquiry was held in 1951 to determine the responsibility for this.
4. The factory formerly manufactured men's civilian clothing, but in late 1949 this department, with its 200 workers and their sewing machines, was transferred to the Gheorghiu Dej (formerly Apaca) factory. The Gheorghiu Dej factory produces mostly uniforms and other military clothing and employs about 7,000 workers. At the time of the transfer of the Octombrie Rosu department a new wing was constructed for the factory. There is a plan to concentrate all the ready made clothing factories in Bucharest in the Gheorghiu Dej enterprise.
5. The following personalities are known:
  - a. Stefan Draghici, director of Octombrie Rosu.
  - b. Iticovici (fnu), stock worker with Octombrie Rosu warehouse.
  - c. Kralosky (fnu), assistant director at Gheorghiu Dej factory.
